WINTER SESSION 2020 SCHEDULE

ALL CLASSES WILL BE ICOURSES

SPAN 101: 4 units - For the student with no previous experience in Spanish.

SPAN 102: 4 units - This course is a continuation of Spanish 101, for students with previous study of Spanish or by placement exam.

SPAN 251: 3 units - This course is the bridge between the Basic Language Program courses and the Upper Division classes. It is designed to improve reading and writing strategies, with a major emphasis on composition.

SPAN 160C1: 3 units - Explore and understand the world of Food, Art and Culture as key elements of our society, with a focus on Spanish Speaking countries. Topics include: food media and films; food history; visual arts; food politics; cultural, urban and economic change in Spanish speaking countries.